Fieri Boston's 9th Annual Pasquetta Scholarship Award Banquet A Resounding Success!

On Saturday April 2nd, 2005 Fieri Boston held its 9th annual Pasquetta Scholarship Award Banquet at the Hilton Boston Logan Airport.

At Pasquetta, FIERI Boston presented its 2005 Scholarship Awards to the following graduating high-school seniors:

- Christina Patti (Revere High School); attending Boston College this fall.
- Anthony Bova Jr. (Masconomet Regional High School); attending Northeastern University this fall.

Fieri Boston would like to thank all those who contributed to making Pasquetta a resounding success. We look forward to seeing you all next year for our 10th Annual Pasquetta Scholarship Award Banquet.

Fieri Boston is an Italian-American organization of students and young professionals celebrating the Italian culture and promoting a positive image of Italian-Americans. Since 1997, we have sponsored many cultural and social events such as guest speakers, book signings, networking nights, positive image movie screenings, bocce tournaments, food drives and toy drives. We have a calendar full of wonderful activities planned for 2005. For information about our activities or information about joining the organization please contact Maria Nigro Di Stefano, FIERI President, at president@fieri-boston.org or visit our website www.fieri-boston.org
